“The Telegraph reader fighting to save her 400-year-old village pub from housing”

This coverage is a powerful testament to what we can achieve together. The journalist was truly struck by the passion and unity of our community—especially after seeing everyone brave the awful weather to be part of the team photo! Your turnout made a real impact and showed just how much The Forester means to all of us.

Your enthusiasm, your presence, and your belief in saving our 400-year-old pub are what continue to drive this effort forward.

Project Update: Property Evaluation and Technical Inspections

Red Book Valuation

Today, Tuesday 10th March we received the formal Red Book valuation for The Forester. This independent assessment will form the basis of our offer to purchase the property.

Specialist Site Inspections

We were granted access to the pub today, Tuesday 10th March to undertake a comprehensive review of the building and its systems. A structural surveyor, electrician, plumber, and commercial kitchen equipment specialist conducted on-site inspections to assess the condition of the premises and identify any required remedial works.

Together, we're making ourselves heard.
Together, we're keeping The Forester alive.
